ACS Publication in which Work Appears: Crystal Growth & Design

Issue Date/Year: January – December 2006

I _____ (hereinafter Assignor) hereby assign, grant, and transfer to the American Chemical Society (hereinafter ACS), and its successors and assign all of my right, title and interest in and to the copyright in the work described below (hereinafter Work), and in all renewals and extensions of the copyright that may be secured under the laws now or hereafter in force and effect in the United States or in any other country or countries. The grant and transfer is for all rights, present and future, in the Work and includes, but is not limited to, rights to the Work for all purposes and in all formats, the right to revise and adapt the Work and the right to prepare derivative works.

Assignor represents and warrants that the assignment and transfer is exclusive to ACS; that Assignor is the sole owner of the Work; that Assignor has the authority to grant the rights set forth herein; that the Work is original and that the Work does not infringe any copyright, violate any property rights, or contain any scandalous, libelous, or unlawful matter. Assignor will indemnify ACS, its officers, directors, and employees, and hold them harmless against all liabilities, costs, expenses and damages arising from any breach of these warranties.

In return, ACS grants back to the artist/photographer, the rights to use this work, modify it, prepare derivative works, or reproduce it in part in any future work of the artist/photographer, provided that appropriate credit is given to the ACS source.
